

2011 Johns Hopkins University Benefits Survey

Tell us what you think! The survey is being hosted by a third party, Mercer, so you can be assured that your anonymity will be protected. The survey should only take about 15 minutes to complete. Your feedback will help the Benefits Advisory Committee and university leadership to improve the value of our benefits package as well as control costs over the long term.

The 2011 Benefits Survey is available June 13 – June 27. Here's the link and password to access the survey:
