ELIGIBILITY: Full-time Johns Hopkins University faculty and staff, and their spouses and dependent children qualify for Tuition Remission after the employee completes 120 days of full-time employment at the university. Domestic partners and their dependent children may also participate in the Plan. However, any benefit provided for an employee's domestic partner or their dependent children will be taxed. The university will withhold these taxes from the employee's paycheck. Retirees, their spouses and dependent children are also eligible for Tuition Remission for Johns Hopkins courses.

Visiting Faculty and Staff, Residents, Interns and Postdoctoral Fellows are not eligible for Tuition Remission.

PAYMENT ALLOWANCES: Payment allowances are for part-time study. Courses must be offered through the continuing education unit of one of the university's academic divisions, CTY, the Berman Institute or the Institute for Clinical and Translational Research. The plan covers both credit and non-credit courses. The maximum Tuition Remission available to employees (including all eligible members of the family) for credit courses is the value of part-time study not to exceed $5,250 in a calendar year. Tuition Remission does not cover tuition costs for courses not completed (withdrawn from or dropped).
